STAFF UPDATE

Director of Neighborhood Planning and Development
Angie Byington reported that

A.) Shoreline Drive and Jackson Street Pier—Feedback and approval/no approval of plan then to City Commission for vote.

B.) East Bay Vision Plan—on hold until Jackson Street Pier plan is finalized.

C.) Justice Center-City Hall- JC site has been narrowed down to American Crayon or MGRM/PNC Bank. City Hall broke ground September 27th.

OLD BUSINESS

Keller Condos—could be dead?-local realtor working on sales-plan has changed to construct less expensive units.

Special Improvement District—Lance W. stated there is growing concerns from downtown businesses specifically the formula for contributing.

Barricades closing the East/West pier in front of Damons Angie B--One of the items that came up this morning was in regard to the Meigs Street Pier, headed north around Battery Park, and the question as to why it's currently closed.

Brad Link contacted Battery Park this morning and they stated that they had temporarily closed it due to weather and unsafe conditions. They are going to monitor the situation and open it up and close it periodically based on the condition of the pier for walking. The closure was not done by the City.

Sandusky Bay Pathway Consultant update schedule.

Mike Z.—Greenhouse is gathering funds for a fountain near a downtown barbershop.

Dragons and Boats races in September at the Paper District Marina.

Tim S.—Amphitheater at the Paper District Marina is underutilized and in need of improvements.

Bill S.—This (City Hall) property we do not need multiple amphitheater sites—we need to improve the Paper District Marina Amphitheater.

Dave M.—Kiwanis organization wants do something at Kiwanis Park on 1st Street for their anniversary—Paddle area behind the ball diamond—paved parking lot—perhaps a picnic/shelter—having some issues with City follow up.

New Business.
